

Finu Iype serves as Co-Senior Pastor at Village Church, providing leadership in preaching, mission, and advancement across a national multi-site movement. Before joining Village in 2020, he founded (as a teenager) Passion to Reach Ministries, a global evangelism and leadership development initiative that has shaped his work for more than two decades.

Finu has spoken in more than 20 nations, serving churches in evangelism and leadership development. He's passionate about encouraging pastors, planting churches, and equipping Christians to communicate the gospel effectively. An immigrant to Canada, born and raised in Bahrain, Finu longs to see first- and second-generation Canadians serving and leading in churches across the nation.

Finu lives in Langley, British Columbia, with his wife, Tresha, and their two young daughters.
